Georgetown proved no more of a match for Tufts yesterday than have the other institutions the latter has faced in this section. The Blue and Gray went down to a 2-to-12 defeat in a contest in which it was outhit and correct the which it was outhit and a contest in which it was outhit and a forth and gray went down to a 2-to-12 defeat in a contest in which it was outhit and a forth with a single and Endriksen advanced him with a sacrifice. Shorten hit a fly to Milan and Gardner singled, but Barry fanned. Though Hooper singled in the fifth wirn two out and also stole second, he was left. The Griffmen got a run in the eighth, in the good and Whitaker was competent enough last year to be ranked as all-American caliber. That he has lost none of his capabilities is shown by the fact that he plitched the last two innings against the Maryland Aggies last Friday, cut short a rally, and Saturday beat Catholic University, 2 to 1, in an eleveninning game.

Catholic University is scheduled to play
